Job Description

PROGRAM OFFICER

The Center for Justice & Accountability is an international human rights organization dedicated to deterring torture, war crimes, crimes against humanity and other severe human rights abuses around the world through innovative litigation, policy, and transitional justice strategies in pursuit of truth, justice and redress for victims and survivors. CJA’s vision is a world in which justice thrives – where every nation has the capacity and willingness to prosecute human rights criminals and achieve justice for those most marginalized in society. We believe that the world’s worst human rights criminals should be brought to justice wherever they are found, as we help build the rule of law in the nations where the original crimes occurred.

Position Overview

This position contributes to CJA’s overall mission by assisting with management of technical assistance programs.

The ideal candidate will have superb written and interpersonal communication, familiarity with international human rights issues, excellent organizational and self-management skills, a strong attention to detail and deadlines, and a learning mindset. The candidate should be committed to the non-profit/social justice field. This is a full-time, salaried position with excellent benefits. This position is fully remote and can be based anywhere in the United States.
