TRUSTEE’S RESPONSE TO EMERGENCY MOTION OF BASHE
ABDI YOUSUF, ET AL. FOR (A) RELIEF FROM THE AUTOMATIC STAY AND (B) THE SCHEDULING OF AN EXPEDITED HEARING

Janet M. Meiburger, Chapter 7 Trustee herein, by and through her undersigned proposed counsel, hereby files this response to the Emergency Motion of Bashe Abdi Yousuf, et al. for (A) Relief from the Automatic Stay and (B) the Scheduling of an Expedited Hearing (the “Motion”) (Docket No. 4), and in support of this response, states as follows:

1. The Debtor has only filed a petition, credit counseling certificate and mailing matrix. The persons included on the mailing matrix consist primarily of the Movants, although it appears that the petition was filed in haste and the mailing matrix might not be complete. Therefore, the Trustee has limited information on which to base this response. However, based on a review of the Motion, the Trustee has no objection to the granting of limited relief from the stay in order to permit the trial described in the Motion to proceed, judgment to be entered, the filing of post-judgment motions, if any, and the prosecution of any appeals.

2. Nevertheless, the Trustee requests that the stay remain in effect with respect to enforcement of any judgment obtained against the Debtor or any property of the Debtor and that any relief from the stay which is granted by the Court be without prejudice to the Trustee's ability to object to any claim filed by the Movants in this bankruptcy case.

Respectfully submitted
